

Multi-Unit Residential Real Estate News, Tuesday, February 19 2013

Developer shakes up Montreal's conservative condo market

Mitchell Abrahams is getting back to his roots. The Montreal native is redeveloping the Toronto's Benvenuto apartment-hotel into luxury condos. But he has launched a trio of condo projects that have shaken up his hometown real estate market back in Quebec. One project, Le Peterson combines daring architecture and sophisticated design.

Toronto Star Tue Feb 19 2013